Esteemed friend

Marie W Chapman

I sincerely hope the things we have taken so much pleasure and interest in collecting, will reach you safely and sell well, we thought it better to affix the prices such articles sell at Bazaars in our country, but you will please to make any alterations that may be deemed desirable.

We wish it to be understood that our contribution is in aid of, (indeed a part of) that of the Glasgow female Anti-slavery Society's, as it is in consequence of their "appeal," and to assist them, that our collection was attempted, and we should have forwarded our things to them, had it not been for the additional expense of carriage. There is a small parcel in the middle of one of the Boxes addressed to Wendell Phillips, from my dear friend and relative Elizth Pease, containing several autographs of Thomas Clarkson, which she hopes will sell well, there is also a parcel from her for W^m Lloyd Garrison

The enclosed Book-marks are made by a little Boy of my own, under ten ^{years} ~~age~~ of age, who wished to do something to help the poor slaves, and could think of nothing else.

I enclose a list of the various articles sent, headed by the names of the contributors, also a note I received from a lady naming more particularly some of the contributors.

Esther Sturge most kindly sent me £5. 0. 0, which I endeavored to expend to advantage by purchasing the small Books,

Tracts &c.

And now dear friend, fervently desiring that the blessing of Him, who, while on earth "preached deliverance to the captives," may rest upon, and prosper your labours on their behalf

I remain, with sincere esteem very affec^{ly} - thy friend

F. M. Moran

I should be much obliged by my affectionate regards being presented to Wendell Phillips and his interesting wife. I retain a very pleasing remembrance of the brief intercourse I was privileged to have with them.
